Caravanning and camping continues to grow, and once a year, the industry comes together in one place to share ideas, discover the latest trends, secure great deals and shape what's next. That's the National Conference: four days of big ideas, honest conversations and valuable connections. In 2027, we're heading back to the Gold Coast's RACV Royal Pines Resort, putting your brand directly in front of the people who influence and make buying decisions.

Who's in the room

Every part of the industry, under one roof. With every break and meal taking place on the exhibition floor, you're always just steps away from the next valuable conversation.
